

The Woman's Club of Roland Park
Presents the First-Ever

OPERA NIGHT

An evening of memorable familiar and famous works drawn from the operatic repertoire will be held at the Club on Saturday, April 3.

The inimitable James Harp, Artistic Director of Maryland Opera, will accompany an ensemble of talented singers and offer erudite and witty commentary.

This extraordinary event, which includes cocktails and a catered buffet supper, is an occasion that no one will want to miss! Attendees at the 130th Gala on December 5 will have the first opportunity to reserve seats.

Save the Date
Saturday, April 3, 2027