Georgia and Armenia:

Two Beautiful European Countries with
Tragic Histories and Uncertain Futures

Sunday, February 7

Doors open at 1:30 p.m.

Jay Sherman delights us once again with his beautiful photography and interesting stories. Sit back and immerse yourself in images of ancient monasteries surrounded by dramatic snow-covered peaks; welcoming, warm people who are not jaded by mass tourism; and gorgeous wine country tended by the descendants of the oldest winemakers in the world.

R.S.V.P. by Monday, February 1 to manager@twcrp.org.
